

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

- Are you staying in temporary housing?
- Do you want your children to stay at their current school?
- Are you having trouble enrolling your children in school, or getting them there?

Help May Be Available

If you are temporarily staying with someone else because you lost your housing due to an economic hardship or a similar hardship and you are staying at night in a hotel/motel, shelter, or public/private place that is not considered accommodating nor recommended for human beings, you and your children have special rights at school.

Those rights include:

- Staying in the same school even if you move, and receiving transportation to that school, as long as it is in the student's best interest.
- Enrolling in school immediately without the documents schools usually require.
- Getting help with school supplies and other needs.
- Help connecting youth children with early childhood services.
